

Help design your Downtown with the new

Fulton Corridor Specific Plan

The City of Fresno is changing all the rules for Downtown with the new Fulton Corridor Specific Plan. Mayor Ashley Swearengin is asking you to help the City's team of design experts shape the future of Downtown Fresno.

All events are free and open to the public.

Sept 25 to Oct 2, 2010 at the Holiday Inn: 1055 Van Ness Ave, Second Floor

For more detailed information, visit: www.fresnodowntownplans.com, or email: DowntownPlans@fresno.gov, or phone: (559) 621-PLAN

Kicking off the Week's Work

Sat 9:00–11:30 am

9/25 Downtown Fresno: What Is Our Vision as a Community?

Workshops

DAY      OVERVIEW: 12–1 PM

PUBLIC INPUT SESSION: 5–8 PM

Mon Preserving Historic Assets
9/27

The Fulton Mall:
*How Do We Fix It?

Tue The Downtown Economy:
9/28 Jobs, Housing & Businesses

Limited Economic Resources:
*What is the Development Strategy?

Wed Downtown Transportation
9/29 Systems

Transportation and Parking:
*How Do We Get There From Here?

Thu Trees, Sidewalks, and 9/30 Open Space

Trees, Sidewalks, and Open Space:
*What Landscape Works Best?

Fri Good Design for Downtown
10/1 Buildings

After the Week's Work

Sat 9:00–11:30 am

10/2 After the Week's Work: What Our Specific Plan Will Do